

AGITATION IN ALZHEIMER'S

ABOUT 3 IN 4 AMERICANS LIVING WITH ALZHEIMER'S EXPERIENCE AGITATION, a symptom characterized by:

Restlessness

Irritability

Emotional distress

Increased motor activity

ALZHEIMER'S AGITATION CAN REDUCE QUALITY OF LIFE

for both patients and their caregivers.

PATIENTS EXPERIENCE
anxiety and confusion, while their cognitive decline quickens.

CAREGIVERS EXPERIENCE frustration, depression and burnout.

NEW FDA-APPROVED MEDICATION HAS PROVEN EFFECTIVE AT TREATING ALZHEIMER'S AGITATION.

In one clinical study, agitation symptoms were

REDUCED BY

31%

MEDICAL INNOVATION & ACCESS CAN HELP REDUCE THE BURDEN OF ALZHEIMER'S AGITATION.