

How Prescription Drug Affordability Boards IMPACT PATIENTS

Prescription drug affordability boards are state-level organizations that aim to lower prescription drug spending for states.

THEIR RECOMMENDATIONS CAN APPLY TO MEDICAID, STATE AND COMMERCIAL HEALTH PLANS.

INSTEAD OF SAVING PATIENTS MONEY, THESE BOARDS COULD UNINTENTIONALLY:

Policymakers should instead address OTHER ISSUES THAT DRIVE UP HEALTH CARE COSTS LIKE:

Cutting government spending shouldn't mean DENYING PATIENTS ACCESS TO TREATMENT.
